Muzrai Secretary's Remarks:-

The request of the Patels and Shanbhogs, which is supported by the Deputy Commissioner, is for the effect that their salary in the part of the Devi's income may be paid to the village officers. The Commissioner may accordingly be asked to deduct annas five from the amount due to each man with the view of utilising the amount collected towards cost of the Sri Devi during the car festival of the temple. The request is no doubt a laudable one, but I doubt if such deduction can at all be made / Government can only grant it. I am of opinion that one of the village officers at any time may be deputed to collect the proceed contributions of the devotees on the festival days, the Commissioner may be requested to move Government in the matter and obtain their orders. The Devi's allowance may also be increased.

It is therefore my humble opinion, the request of the Patels and Shanbhogs will not be deducted by Government from the Potgi allowances, but that if the Village Officers on their own accord, collect from each of the temple, and place it at the disposal of the Amildar, that Officer may, at the annual distribution of the allowances, credit it to the Sriranga Bhatta & Co. amount and spend it in accordance with the wishes of the contributors.

ORDER THEREON.—The request of the Patels and Shanbhogs, which is supported by the Deputy Commissioner, is to the effect that while making the payment of the Potgi amounts due to the village officers, the Government themselves should deduct four annas from the amount due to each man with the view of utilizing the amount so collected towards conducting a santarpane during the annual car festival of the Sri Vijaya Narayanaswami at Gundlupet. The object is no doubt a laudable one but the Government observe that such deduction cannot legally be made by Government of its own authority. If it happens that any one of the village officers refuses at any time to make the proposed contribution for the benefit of the temple, the Government cannot compel payment and deduct the amount from such person's Potgi allowance against his will. If the village officers of their own accord make a collection on behalf of the temple and place it in the hands of the Amildar, that officer may, as the head of the Muzrai Institutions in the taluk, receive the amount and credit it in the Savings Bank and spend it towards the santarpane in accordance with the wishes of the contributors.
